Evelyn Collette was a working student in the Philippines, from Elementary to College. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science in commerce. She came to in America in mid 80's and met her Husband- Robert James Collette around late 80's and got married in 1990, and in 1991 their daughter Jasmine Marie Collette-Gabe, came to the picture.

Since then, Evelyn Collette was a very hard working wife and mother. She dedicated her whole life taking care of the elderly as a CNA. It was her ambition to become a nurse when she was a child, but couldn't afford it. She really loves her job and is so passionate about it - it was her life. She was an honest and straightforward person. She was so devoted to God and whatever she's facing in her life, she always says "Give it to the Lord." And she lives her life with this word. . . lying lips is an abomination to the Lord.
