“ We loved Sister Fair as we called her at church!! She was one of a kind! That sweet grandmother figure that wore flowered house dresses that she made herself, wore her gray hair in a bun, knew how to cook, garden, can, collect eggs, milk the cow and raise and butcher a hog. She knew that old fashioned country talk. When you visited her, you didn't want to leave!! She was a godly woman that left a set of footprints for her family to follow. Sis Fair was lovingly cared for the past seven years mostly by her daughter, "Bib" (with helping hands from brothers and sisters-in-law) and went to her reward right from the old farmhouse. We will miss her!!
