“ So very sorry to hear of Evelyns passing. She was such a nice, sweet lady. I was a close friend of her Daughter Robin. After Robin passed I stayed in touch with Evelyn and every year sent her Christmas Cards and always called her on Robins birthday. Thank-you Sheila for calling me to tell me this news. So sorry to know her last few years were such hard ones physically but I rejoice in knowing that she is at peace and pain free and in Heaven with her husband and her Robin. I am sure she is talking and filling them in on everything. Such a sweet lady, Heaven is singing today! Rest in Peace Dear Evelyn. Sincerely, Sarah White Brackett, Manassas, VA

“ I met Mrs. Evelyn Fritts in the 80's, when I dated her daughter Sheila...It was like having another mother for me. She was everything you could want to have in a mother. We liked to make jokes about almost everything. The world is a little darker without her in it. I'm sure she is in God's hands and free from any pain and suffering. I've lost someone who has made my life special just knowing her. Sincerely, Dale R. Hawn.

“ I remember the day that I met Evelyn. As her daughter's friend, she welcomed me as if I was her own daughter. We sat and chatted around the kitchen table for hours, as if we had known each other forever. She was a beautiful lady inside and out, and this world will miss such a wonderful soul!
