

Evelyn Pregano

January 20, 1940 - March 9, 2023

Evelyn Pregano was ushered into Heaven's gates on Thursday, March 9, 2023, at the age of 83. After several years of living with Lymphoma, Evelyn passed peacefully with her beloved children nearby.

Evelyn was one of ten children, born in Olive Hill, KY on January 20, 1940, to Father Chester Stanley and Mother Mollie Burchett. In search of work, Evelyn made her way to Cleveland, Ohio where she met her late husband, Frank Pregano at the Cleveland Hopkins Airport. Together, in their strong faith, they raised their family in Ohio before relocating to Virginia where they lived for 36 years.

As a loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother, Evelyn never stopped praying for her family. She raised her family to count on the Word of God, knowing that one day the family would be reunited in Heaven.

Evelyn enjoyed her career as a bus driver, from school buses in Ohio to city buses in Washington, D.C. She made friends everywhere she went, never missing an opportunity to be a witness to the Lord.

Evelyn was a Southern Bell, who took great pride in creating a beautiful home for her family. She loved fiercely and without reservation, sharing the gift of love with all those around her. Anyone who walked through her front door was treated like family. She valued the meaning behind a family meal and cooked from her heart. She loved to dress to the occasion, with jewels, hats, and bright colors. Evelyn's bright smile and laugh were infectious; she loved to share her stories and laugh with those dear to her.

Evelyn was preceded in death by her husband Frank Pregano, her son Ronald Lee Pregano, and her granddaughters Michelle and Danielle Pregano, her parents, her siblings, Lottie Bond, Ray Stanley, Oval Stanley, Alfred Stanley, Richard Stanley, and Tommy Stanley. She is survived by her children Sheila Schneider, Angela Knight, Giuseppe Pregano, Rosina Bergmann, Evelyn Franklin, Francesca Pregano, Lora Crowe and Kimberly Hass, 18 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren and siblings, Faye Stamper, Arnold Stanley, and Jewell Wheeler.

A service will be held for Evelyn on Tuesday, March 14, 2023 at Pierce Funeral Home in Manassas, VA followed by a reception at Giuseppe's Ristorante Italiano in Haymarket, VA.

Family and friends will be able to pay their respects during the viewing beginning at 10:00 am.

“ Evelyn was an amazing Christian soul who always shone with the light of the Lord Jesus Christ and I knew her and her family since I was a young boy. She is sorely missed and I know no one else can fill the void she left behind—my deepest condolences to all her precious family and loved ones. Thanks for all the kindness and compassion you and your husband have shown my family. We are all connected and will unite in just a little while. Life is but a vapor and you made the most of it by leaving a legacy of love through everything you did with each breath. I love and cherish each smile and laugh we shared through treasured memories. With Love, your extended family.
