“ My Uncle Everett was one of the greatest men I have ever known. His generosity and kindness knew no bounds. I recall him treating people at a car accident near the pharmacy where he worked on George Washington Highway, in Craddock. Without hesitation he treated all of the injured before the ambulance transported them to the hospital. I later recall when the victim of a severe beating in Manassas came to his door asking for help. He awoke me and I went downstairs as I heard him tell the poor man that he had definitely come to the right house. He treated the man and stitched him up until the police came and the ambulance transported him to a nearby hospital. When I was a child he treated me after an accident in the marsh behind my house , he cleaned, dressed, and stitched up my wound. I loved him and his family dearly. I am currently in the Czech Republic and am very sorry that I am unable to attend his services. With Love Ken Hartung.

What can be said when there are no words. He was the best doctor our family ever had. He had compassion and really cared about his patients. I remember him coming into Yorkshire Restaurant where I worked part time, with his family. He always asked about my husband and family. He really cared. May he RIP. Bev and Wallace Herndon

“ Barbara and family, I am so sorry for your loss.

I've always loved Doc's quick sense of humor. He kept me laughing and sometimes shaking my head. He was bold enough to say things that others might not dare, but because he said it with a smile all was well.

I also appreciated his compassion and concern. One day when I hadn't mentioned that my back was hurting he came up and asked if I was in pain. I told him I was and he asked if I had a tens unit. I assured him that I did. After that he would periodically walk up to me at church and hand me a 9 volt battery and tell me to be sure to use my tens unit. I guess Doc knew me well and figured I wouldn't spend the money on batteries for myself if something else was more pressing.

Doc always brightened my day and I'm so glad I got to spend time together with you both in small group at your home this fall. You are dearly loved!
