May 4, 1937 - July 31, 2025

Fayrene Tiller Ball (Faye), 88, our beloved mother and grandmother passed away peacefully on Thursday, July 31, 2025, in Warrenton, Virginia.

Faye, fondly known as Memaw by her grandchildren, leaves behind a legacy of love. Born on May 4, 1937, in Buchanan County Virginia, she devoted her life to being a caretaker. She loved her family fiercely and tended to her close circle of friends with her trademark warmth. Her unwavering devotion to her family and friends leaves an immeasurable impact.

Faye had a zest for life and enjoyed many hobbies. She was an avid gardener and cook, with an eye for décor. Faye loved to entertain, taking pride in her ability to create inclusive gatherings where everyone felt welcomed. She enjoyed walking, attending community events, and lunching with friends.

Faye is survived by her daughters, Dee Ritenour and Tammy Tenbrook; sister Colene Jones, grandchildren, Michael Ritenour, Brian Ritenour, Chad Hall, Matthew Ball, Morgan Hall, Allissa Ball, and Bailey Tenbrook; eight great-grandchildren; and a multitude of other family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Tivis and Mary Ellen Tiller; her loving husband of 58 years, Ashby Ball; her son, Donald Ball; and brothers Ernest Tiller, Doug Tiller, and Emmit Tiller.

Although we deeply mourn the loss of our matriarch, we are honored to celebrate her beautiful life and legacy.

Faye will be laid to rest at National Memorial Cemetery at Quantico. An intimate family service will be held to honor her life. In lieu of flowers, the family welcomes donations to the American Cancer Society, a cause very close to Faye's heart. Visit: Donate Today | The American Cancer Society.
