“ One beautiful, godly woman who will be deeply missed by those who knew her.

No words can take away the sorrow you must feel.

But hopefully the cherished memories of your mother will help give you the strength in the days ahead.

Momma A. has been like a mother to me over the past 25 plus years. And I am going to miss her beautiful smile and those baby blue eyes when she looked at me and how she would always pronounce my name.

In Deepest Sympathy,

The Bryant/Walker Family

“ It's hard to believe that Florance is really gone. She was the light in a lot of people's lives and we are all better off for knowing her and the love she had to share. Florance never met anyone she could not care for, and never feared showing her true feelings about what she was thinking. She was definitely one of God's true people. She will forever be missed. God Bless to her family and friends in this time of grief, but take solitude in knowing she is no longer in pain and is in a better place with Ebb, Granny, Raymond, JR & Pam. We love you!

“ James & Family

May the comforting thought from the book of Revelation, 21:4 be of comfort to you. It reads: "And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away." Offering my deepest condolences during this difficult time.

“ The Lord is not slack concerning His promises to His Children. Each one of us is precious in His sight as though we were the only one. Though we wouldn't have chosen it, our Heavenly Father knows Best for each one of us. Our times are in His hands, and those pierced hands are always perfect. Trust Him. Trust His timing. Florence has gone home to a freedom and joy we do not yet know. God Bless You and your family with His Peace and Special Care during this time period of separation. In the Love of Family & Friends -- Be comforted in Christ, the sweet presence of the Holy Spirit, and God's Word.
