“ Dear Florence or like your grandchildren would say Mom-Mom. I'm glad the last words we exchanged was you saying "I love you". And me saying "I love you too." I have never met a more honest and sincere person in all my life. You always said what you thought good or bad. You never pretended to be someone you were not. I know I will never meet ANYONE else like you. You will be greatly missed.
Love Dennis

“ In high school me an Flo's daughter, Debbie were not only best friends, but sisters, an we were inseparable. To Debbie my parents were her 2nd parents, and to me her parents were my 2nd parents. Our parents treated us like their children. Not only was Debbie and I close, but soon our mothers became best friends, and like me and Debbie, they were inseparable.

Over the years, I lost track of Debbie, but her and her family crossed my mind daily, and I had hoped to one day see my BFF and her family again. My mom stayed best friends with Flo, and throughout these years kept me posted on Debbie and Flo and Al. I will never forget Flo or how she treated me, or the memories she gave me! My mom and I loved her, and she and her family wasn't friends to us, but family! Our love for Flo will never fade, because she touched our hearts in a way that only angles do, and she etched herself there.

Not only is her family lost without her, but my mom is lost too. So to everyone that Flo has touched and left her mark on your heart.....always embrace the memories she has left you with, never forget how she loved you, and never ever forget that when she etched herself in your heart, she left a piece of her so you will never forget her!

I love you all so much, and I hope God helps you all to stay strong, and always look to your heart, because there is now a angel who will always be there for you!

God Bless you all now and always,
Lisa (Umowski) Osborn

“ I worked with Flo & Donna for almost 18 years. They were the greatest most reliable ladies to work with. I called Flo (Flossy) for many years and not too many years ago she politely came to me and said I really don't like that name.....LOL I never called her that again. I was so sad to hear about her illness but I was shocked to hear about her passing. She will be greatly missed but not forgotten.

If any of you need anything please call me.

*With Love and Prayers,
