

Florence "Rosie" Rosalie Marsengill

May 16, 1943 - September 1, 2024

Florence Rosalie "Rosie" Marsengill, known affectionately as Nanny to most, passed away peacefully at home on September 1st, 2024, surrounded by the love of her family. Born on May 16th, 1943, in Tunnelton, WV to the late William & Gladys Runion, she was one of 9 children. Rosie attended Fairfax High School and married her first love, Mylous "Mike" Marsengill, recently celebrating their 65th wedding anniversary. Together they raised 3 sons.

A love of bowling and travel took her across the country on numerous adventures with her closest friends. Her greatest joy was always returning home to those she loved most, including her children, grandchildren, & great grandchildren. She also had "honorary" grandchildren, and over the years fostered several children that she loved and raised as her own. Rosie had a heart of gold and found true happiness in helping others with anything they may need, from Angel Tree donations, Back to School shopping, to food pantry contributions, and so much more.

She is survived by her husband Mike; 3 sons - Mike (Jonnie) Marsengill Jr. of Rural Retreat, VA, Gary (Lori) Marsengill of Ashburn, VA and Paul (Wilma) Marsengill of Nokesville, VA. She is also survived by 14 grandchildren - Amanda (Rob), Michelle (Nathan), Alex (Mary Ava), Samantha, Chad (Brianna), Nick (Evelyn), Lindsay, Eric (Kenlei), Phillip, Madeline, Brady (Savannah), Taylor (Devan), Virginia and Willie; 17 great-grandchildren -

Michael, Jadea, Payson, Aiden, Peyton, Lincoln, Hazel, Charlotte, Cayden, Gage, Oliver, Maverick, Calliope, Atlas, Kimberlyn, Brady Jr. and Salem; honorary grandchildren - Collin, Bradley & Matthew; one sister Barbie Tate, and numerous nieces and nephews.
