Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

where there is injury, pardon;

where there is doubt, faith;

where there is despair, hope;

where there is darkness, light;

where there is sadness, joy;

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;

to be understood as to understand;

to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;

it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

“ I just learned of Frankie's passing tonight when I googled his name to see if he may have had a facebook page. I played softball with Frank in Korea in 77-78 and was stationed near him again in 80-81. He was one of my closest friends while stationed there. Being a Michigan fan and he a OSU fan we had numerous debates and spent two long nights or early mornings watching the border war on AFKN TV
