“ We never had the opportunity for a conversation with Mr. Nassetta, but we did meet him and his wife when Father Peter took them to dinner at a restaurant nearby. But if he and his wife produced such a man as Fr. Peter, then he must have been a heck of a man. God bless his soul among the saints and his family in their remembrance.

“ We are praying through tears with you and your family. What a gift it was to know him and hear all his great stories! We will forever remember the joyous moment him and your mom were the last ones standing on the dance floor at our wedding reception, winning the most-years-married title. We are so very sorry for your loss :( May the gift of Christ bring you all comfort and even joy during this very difficult time. All our love and prayers!! Love Matt & Christi

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family Fr. Peter. I say the St. Gertrude Prayer on a regular basis, which releases 1,000 souls out of purgatory, I will say a special St. Gertrude Prayer for your father tonight for his soul. I will also continue to keep you and your family in daily prayer as you go through this difficult time. Many blessings!

“ I only had a chance to meet Mr. Nassetta one time, having gone to help do some landscaping at his home in Gainesville. But I remember him being a very kind and compassionate man while we worked there. My prayers are with him and his family as I know he will be greatly missed. May he rest in peace.
