“ Frankie, was my aunt one my Dad's side of the family and My great aunt on my Mom's side of the family. That is because she married my father's brother and was my Mother's aunt. If not for her my parents would maybe have never met. My earliest memories of Aunt Frankie was playing at her house with Johnny. She was very good with young children, I guess that is why she was a first grade teacher. She would always tell you about her students. I loved her very much and tried to always to see her when on a trip to Manassas. She was a wonderful godly woman. I know she is in heaven with all her loved ones. Rest in peace my sweet aunt and know I love you!

“ I feel so blessed to have known Frankie. She was one of the sweetest people I have ever had the pleasure to have known. When she left Fanrock, she sold daddy a bed room set. Daddy was kidding with her and told her as much as he paid for it, she should have thrown in a set of sheets. The next day she showed up at the house with a set of sheets and a bedspread. I still have the bed room set. I think of her every time I look at it. Prayers for the family.

“ Aunt Frankie was one of kindest, sweetest, people I've ever known. Everytime I saw her she always had a smile on her face and she loved to share her joy and happiness with everyone. I'm so thankful you were a teacher, because I'm sure you made such a wonderful difference in so many childrens lives. I loved you aunt Frankie and look forward to that glorious day when I see you, uncle Carmel and my mom in heaven.
