“ My thoughts, prayers and love are with you; Nora, Angie, Sam and the rest of the Bustle family. When I met Tank I was just 15 years old, a very long time ago. Tank loved life and made life fun for all. I miss him dearly and will always remember the memories to get me by. Tank was my beloved brother in law and friend, always there for me. May God bless you and those you made so happy. I will never forget the memories and will think of you often. Rest in peace and I love you.
