“ I am indeed lost for words and my heart grieves for all of you at this very sad time.

I loved Uncle Frank and remember him as always being so fun and his laugh just always cracked me up! I remember his drag racing, his piano playing, and his never being able to sit still.....loving to be active and doing something all the time.

I know I won't see him again here on earth....but I will see him in heaven where we will be perfect...in the image of Jesus Christ with good health and joy forevermore. He is with his sweet mom and other brother and sisters and many friends and my dad.....and I miss my dad after having lost him 8 weeks ago. The pain is still there. I can relate to the pain and sorrow and hurt...that only God can comfort along with sweet loving family and friends.

I love you all. May God grant you comfort to know you will see him again in good health and that big smile...who could ever forget that smile!

Love, Lynda McGlothlin Evans and husband Wayne and daughters and sons-in-law (Danielle, Brandon, Tyler, Krystol and Patrick)
