

Fred Douglas Dove

June 11, 1964 - January 18, 2021

Fred Douglas Dove, 56, passed away at home in Warrenton, Va. on January 18th 2021. Fred was born on June 11, 1964 to Fred E. and Mary L. Dove. He is also survived by his sisters, Ruthie Dove, Christine Payne (husband Doug), MaryEllen McCourt (husband Tim), two nieces, Casey Hylton (husband Danny), Christy Huffstetler (husband Joe) a nephew, Travis McCourt(wife Becky) two great nieces, two great nephews and one on the way in August.

Anyone who knew Fred would say he loved to laugh, had a beautiful smile and bright blue eyes. During Fred's early years he worked many hours with his dad in the construction field. As years passed Fred became an outstanding carpenter and eventually started his own business, Dove's Handyman Service. When Fred wasn't working he was doing what he loved most, fishing and hunting. Fred, his dad and family would charter a boat, travel miles out in the bay and spend the day fishing, these are the days Fred lived for. No matter how cold it was Fred enjoyed deer hunting, he was most at peace when he was in the woods, sitting in his tree stand watching the wildlife play and waiting for the big one. While words cannot truly express our immense loss, Fred will always be remembered for the love he shared with those around him.

Due to the pandemic an outdoor memorial service will take place at Stonewall Memorial Gardens on February 12th at 2:00pm, mask required.

“ Fred was an old friend of mine. We lost touch several years back and I wish we had stayed in touch. We hunted together and he took me out on my first bass boat ride. He was a good guy and I was sad to hear of his passing. I wish I had known about his memorial service today. I'm going to get over and say goodbye to him this weekend. Rest in peace Fred.

“ Fred and I were buddies probably when we were 16/17 years old. Great guy! I remember playing in their barn off Bethlehem Rd if I remember right.

I'm sure he was loved by many! I always think about him when I go to 2 Silos brewing.

RIP Fred

“Brother I watched you from a teenager to the man you became. We hunted and fished together, cover each other in mud and laugh so hard that we would fall off our bikes/4-wheelers. In snow, going out to pull people out of the ditch. The time you spent with us at the shop hanging out and eating, late in the night. Most of all "I LOVE YOU" and I will miss you so much. I have a hole in my heart that is forever. I hope that when my time comes you can introduce me to King Jesus Christ. I will miss you for as long as I live.

Rest In Peace Brother

“ My brother/my friend. You will be so ever missed and so dear to so many. I loved to hear your voice on the other end of that phone, so many laughs and stories we shared. I will continue our conversations even though you are high above me, until we meet again.

One day we were locked out of the house, so Fred got a ladder to get in through a window but he could not get the window open to get in. So I removed the ladder so he could not get down. He was yelling at me to put the ladder back up. I finally put the ladder back up for him to come down. Previously he had warned me that he was going to hurt me. When I put that ladder back up I took off like a bat out of hell with him on my heels. I knew that I could not let him get a hold of me, he never did catch me. But I knew that I had to stay far from him until I knew we were buds again.

I miss you with all my heart

Rest In Peace Fred - Christine

“ The coolest Uncle a kid could ask for! Summer evenings spent with football, water fights and trips in your mustang to get ice cream. Never for a minute did Casey, Travis or I wonder if you loved us, even when you were tough as nails. You made us want to do more and told us we could accomplish anything, even when we didn't want to listen. My childhood was blessed because you were in it. These are the things I should've told you instead of saying it on here. Your memory finds me when I'm looking at pictures of Christmas past, football games and tan work boots. You are having another great-niece or nephew and I promise, that child will know you from the stories I will share. You are so loved and I'm forever grateful for you.
