Fred Cameron, one of the best men I've had the pleasure to call a true friend. Whenever we needed something, one of us was there for the rescue. I wish I would have had the pleasure of serving with Fred, such a wonderful man and family man. I will miss him greatly. RIP my good friend. Love to all the family. We are just heartbroken over the loss of dear Fred. He was a lovely man and such a caring neighbor. He had such great stories and an admirable zest for life; he just never stopped working. It was a pleasure to watch him in the garden on the mower or hear him listening to great tunes in his workshop. If we heard a little gun pop, we knew he'd gotten a snake. His deep love for his family was obvious in all he did and spoke about - his heart was full. And what a Patriot he was...a class act! It was an honor to know him. Keeping you all in prayers at this difficult time & days ahead. Heaven has been blessed with a special angel who's watching over all now. RIP
