“ My Heart is breaking. My "pesky" little brother that I had to watch out for is gone. While I wasn't looking, my little brother grew up to be such a good man! Everyone who knew him could see his gently soul..

We have spent Christmas Eve together for over 50 years. Even he said it didn't seem like Christmas unless he came to my house! Junior will be missed by everyone who knew him and loved him. There will be sad Christmas Eves from now on.

He has had so many health problems in the last 27 years - I pray that at last he is at peace and back with Mama and Daddy!

“ When I think back on the times our families would get together and share food and laughter I remember Junior running around with other cousins having so much fun. He was always wide open. His sisters Glenna and Joannie would pick at him and of course Aunt Sis would come to his rescue and Uncle Garland would fold his arms over his chest and laugh. We all had such good times as kids. Junior please tell everyone hello and that we love them and have not forgotten a single one. You will be missed by all left behind but welcomed with arms to those who have gone before you. Love you, Rest In Peace.

“ When I reflect on Garland's 30+years as part of the Moretti clan, a single trait bubbles to the top: his gentleness. Others may list his infectious humor or his being a loving parent and husband, There are many other good traits that describe him but I never before encountered anyone with such a gentle and kind spirit. He will be missed!!

*I'm going to miss my wonderful cousin greatly. I never knew anyone who could put a smile on my face like Junior did..... just to see him made me feel good. I'll never forget the fun times we had as teenagers at Granny and Grandad Unthank's house. And our fun times rooming together in our Norfolk Street house. I know we'll be together again one day, and I know I'll once again feel that big smile come back on my face as I see you again..... I love you cuz, and will forever cherish our time together. This picture of my brother reminds me of his happy, enduring, and kind spirit. Though he had health challenges over the years, I cannot recall that he complained. He endured with a joyful spirit. His love for Ellen and his children was evident and I am grateful that he was so blessed.
