

Garland Moore

May 28, 1924 - June 23, 2006

GARLAND E. MOORE, age 82 of Manassas, died Friday, June 23, 2006 at Prince William Hospital, Manassas.

Mr. Moore was a member of Buckhall United Methodist Church. He was loved by many friends. Garland Moore was a loving husband, grandfather, great-grandfather and brother. An easy-going person, he never knew a stranger. A first impression would leave both parties with a life-long friendship. That nature was passed on to his children and, later, his grandchildren. Garland had a story for everyone, no matter the situation and was not shy about passing those anecdotes onto others. He was always willing to help, if able and could be counted on by friends and family alike to provide help or guidance whenever asked. In his life, Garland overcame adversity and became a man with an indomitable spirit and zest for life who touched many lives and whose loss will be felt by many for a long time.

He was preceded in death by his parents T.C. and Bessie Moore; his brothers Vernon, Thomas, Alvin, and his sister Thelma Hensley.

Survivors include his loving wife of 31 years, Mary Moore; children, Frank Moore and wife Mary of Manassas, Bonnie Pearson and husband Thomas of Manassas, Loren Moore and wife Kathy of Manassas, step-sons Alan Call and wife Marie of Richmond, and Stephen Call and wife Kim of Stafford.

Also surviving are 11 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

The family will receive friends from 2:00-4:00 P.M. and 7:00-9:00 P.M. Monday, June 26, 2006 at Price Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas where funeral services will be held 11:00 A.M.
