“ My heartfelt sympathy to the Mitchell family on the loss of your beloved Gary. Losing someone you love Is the most difficult thing a family will ever have to do. Please be assured our Heavenly Father knows your pain and wants to comfort you. Jehovah is the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials"(2Corinthians1:3,4) "Draw close to God and he will draw close tu you"(James4:8). It is my hope that you find comfort in the beautiful memories of Gary and Jesus promise, John5:28,29.

“ We played together and fought like brothers and sisters while living next door to each other from childhood until our young adult years we still kept in touch when we could. I'm so glad he made the decision to accept the Lord as his personal saviour. I was so excited that day knowing he was gonna be made whole inside and outside and be in the presence of the mighty one which was a little sooner than we thought. Not goodbye but wait for me at Jesus feet. Cathy Short- Mullins and Douglas Mullins.
