“ It has been quite a long time since I seen George (my Godfather). However one memory that I have of him is a gift that I received for my birthday or Christmas when I was little. It was Avon soap in the shape of a brush, mirror and comb and it came in a neat little case. It was to cool to use and I saved it. To this day I still have it in with my other precious tokens from my childhood days and every now and than I will did it out and share the memory with mom (Rose Kirchofner) and Ben when he visits.

The family of George is in our thoughts and prayers....Gob Bless!!

“ I remember Uncle George as handsome, tall, and full of life and good humor. He and Henry and some other siblings would visit us on the farm in ND. After he married Kathryn and moved back east, we saw very little of him. My mother, my children, sister Lori and I visited him and his family in the early 70s - we drove from Milwaukee, Wis. I know that Susan was born by then, but not Stacy or Darrel. It's a sad loss for all.

“ Uncle George was a very important part of my life. He was somewhat of a surrogate father to me when his brother, my dad, passed away when I was only 6. My wife, Geny, remembers him fondly as well for the way he made her feel part of the family when we were first married. Our family has suffered a great loss.
