“ Dear Kay and Family: I am very sorry for the loss of your love one, husband and father.

George was very important part of my conversion to the Catholic Church and have always saw the good he was doing for All Saints and inspired me to volunteer.

George would always mention that we were of kindred spirit because of my name is GeorgeAnn.

I hope to see you at the funeral. With love, GeorgeAnn

“ Dear Kay and Gibson family members:
Please accept our prayers and condolences as you grieve and mourn the passing over of your husband, father, grandfather George--to be with Jesus forever+++

He awaits you all at the banqueting table in heaven.

"Eye hath not seen nor ear heard what God has prepared for those who love him."

May you feel the comfort of the Holy Spirit through love of family, friends, community and church.

Humbly,

Bridget & Ray Trail

“ Dear Kay,
You and George have been beacons of your faith; always showing your love for God and his people. Throughout your lives, George's struggle with illness, and ultimately, his death; you have shown the love of God in your acceptance of His will and the serving of his church.

May your family be surrounded by love as mourn George's loss.
May you be given the peace that surpasses all understanding.
Love,
Kathy Anderson

“ We are sorry we cannot attend but please accept our deepest condolences. Isaiah 25:8
He will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears from all faces; he will remove the disgrace of his people from all the earth. The LORD has spoken.
