

George Rasiovich

February 23, 1933 - January 21, 2022

George Raisovich of Manassas, Virginia passed away at home on Friday January, 21, 2022

He was born on February 23, 1933 to the late Andy and Milica Raisovich. He spent his early years in Anawalt, West Virginia eventually working in the coal mines before serving in the United States Army and was honorably discharged in 1953. In 1960 George moved to Alexandria, Virginia and worked for Fruit Growers Express as a welder. He worked for Amtrak in Washington, D.C. the last years of his career until he retired in 1995. Being outdoors was one of George's favorite pastimes whether he was hunting, fishing, or just walking in the woods. He enjoyed watching old western movies, football, game shows, and listening to bluegrass music. His lifelong commitment was keeping his 1974 Chevy pick-up truck running and performing all the maintenance work himself. He was a loving husband, father and grandfather. George was preceded in death by his sister Rose Rogers and brother in-law Paul, brother Lewis and sister in-law Dorothy, brothers Michael, Eli, and Bobby, sister in-law Paricia Froukh and brother in-law Abbey, nieces Roben Mullins and Susie Rogers, and nephews Michael Raisovich and Randy Rogers. Left to cherish his memory are his wife of 58 years Peggy, son Tony and wife Tina, grandson Nick, sister in-law Phyllis Mullins and son Glenn, brothers Daniel and wife Linda of Braedenton, Fla. and Andy of Montcalm, West Virginia, and special friends Carolyn Russo and sons Max and Jack, Mildred Davis and son Pete Posey. George's remains will be cremated and brought home to his final resting place.
