“ We love and miss you Uncle BeBe and think of you often. I will always cherish how special you always made me feel when I was younger and throughout the years when we shared Christmas cards. I was so sorry I didnt get to see you and to get a hug when we moved from Florida to Va to take care of Sis..Leslie. Mom and I and Jon had just spoken so fondly of you and had plans to come and see you and Lynn. But we didn't know you were sick. Breaks my heart. It's really never goodbye but only until we meet again.

Love you and Lynn. Rest in peace Uncle BeBe. <3

Susie, Dean, Sis(Leslie), Jon and family

Please give Daddy, Grandma, Pappy and our loved ones a hug for us. <3

“ Bebe was a unique man in today's fast paced world. He helped to raise 3 generations in Fairfax. He helped those who were smart enough to accept help and treated everybody the with the same respect. Over the 11 years that Bebe cut my hair, he drew me into his family barbershop family, shared stories and offered subtle advice via his multitude of stories. Only occasionally did he talk about his kids, when he did it was always with pride. With Bebe's illness (which he doggedly fought) and his passing, we've all lost a true friend and counselor. I've never known a more selfless kind hearted person than Bebe. His was a life lived fully and well -he only made a mistake once -- an impressive and difficult record to achieve.

“ *Dearest Lynn,
I was so sorry to hear of BeBe's passing. His presence on our street will be sorely missed. He always meticulously tended your beautiful yard. Bebe was kind to all the children of the neighborhood. If you need anything, please let me know.*

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss. BeBe always greeted us with warmly and spoke fondly of his family and his loyal dogs. His eyes twinkled with kindness each time we saw him. I'll miss his familiar, " Hey, babe, how's it going ?"

BeBe gave us our first canna lilies, and like he had, we now have hundreds . Thank you, BeBe, for being a part of our lives sin e that cirst haircut at Manaport. You will be missed greatly by many. Rest In peace, friend.

Love,
