“ Jerry and I became friends when we worked at Merrill Lynch together. After I moved to TN, we were not able to stay in touch as much. I am very sad to realize he is gone. Brenda, if you don't mind, I would love to hear from you privately as to what happened and if there is anything I can do. My email is clentz@providentwealth.net . I'm so sorry for your loss, he will be missed.

God Bless,

“ I was deeply saddened to hear of the sudden passing of my dear friend. We were inseparable during our High School years and shared a deep love of sport and competition. His sense of humor and deep passion for life was magnetic and we managed to stay connected over the ensuing decades. Although I had not seen Jerry for many years, he was always on my mind and I always planned to visit and catch up...after all, there was always time and he was still young and healthy! I regret not being there for him in his last days...I did not know he was suffering. Rest In Peace my friend...you were a special and cherished part of my life. You will be missed...

Ken, You were a true friend. Jerry talked about you a lot. All the stories from high school and all the memories all had you included. I was so hoping you would be able to be here for the service. We will all miss him. Thank you for being a true friend to him. Diane Clark

I am so sorry and shocked to hear the news of Jerry passing. We were friends at Merrill Lynch and he would call to catch up on life after he left ML. He was a wonderful guy and always knew how to make me laugh. He was a very compassionate man with all of his many friends in life. I will keep Jerry and your family in my prayers. Nancy Potter

“ What an amazing life Jerry gave me! I can remember watching his football games in the freezing cold on Friday nights, cooking and cleaning up after his dinner party at the house, him scooting on his butt with his broken ankle, talking about his two a day practices with Kenny, dancing like Tom Jones, seeing Dad bust into tears when we left him at college in NC, seeing his white VW and being so excited to see him, Betty and Jerry's wedding, being his softball groupie with all the guys from SJ, the joy and pride in his and Dad's eyes and heart with Jeremy and Adam and grand kids, walking me down the isle, hiking for miles every weekend when our butts were so frozen it burned when we sat in the car seat, breakfast at the diner until i had two flies, rides to the country, Blan Tier Lane and the eagles. Jerry you were the rock after Mom's, Dad's, Bruce King's and Paul Entremont's funeral....

Jerry has ALWAYS been there for me - wedding, buying car, house not because you had to be but because you wanted to. I am so very proud and thankful to be your sister. I will miss that dynamite smile, laugh and personality/quick wit. Oh and bashing Obama and talking Football. You will always be in my heart. You will be missed tremendously. I love you

“ I haven't known Jerry as long as some of you but in the 2 year's I have known him, I have found him to be a true patriot..he loved his country, and his family...
He and I used to sit and talk for hour's he told me many stories about his growing up..
He was passionate in his beliefs.. He was a good man, I know I will miss him dearly his passing has left a huge hole in my heart.

Jerry..I love you💔

Hello Marie
Jerry talked about you often. Thank you for being there for him and loving him. I will miss his smile, laugh, sense of humor, football, Obama bashing talks. Wish I had told him more how much he meant to me.
Love you Marie

Did he tell you the story about when he walked in a sat down in the back row in first grade and the teacher tells him to sit in the front row. Jerry was like WTH... turns out he had graduated to second grade. It cracked me up when he would tell it

Brenda McDonald - November 29, 2016 at 03:04 PM

Brenda...
He was a remarkable man...
He tried to act so tough but he had a huge heart..
He didn't care much for Obama and was very outspoken about it.. He wanted to get his eye surgery and then get his conceal to carry...I told him I would teach him to shoot...LOL he hated the thought of a girl doing something better than he could..
He helped me through a very difficult time and I will treasure the time we had...
He knew how I felt about him..scared him in the beginning...

Hi Marie. You are absolutely correct. Jerry didn't like "girls" knowing or doing more than he could. LOL. That was his male ego thing. I enjoyed talking to you and thank you so much for sending the picutre and sharing his favorite songs. Stay in touch. Diane Clark-Collins

Hey Teri. Of course I remember you. You can give me a call when you have time. My cell phone number is (719) 235-1616. We are all in shock. I just talked to Jerry on Friday night and he was so up beat and we laughed a little. When I received the call on Saturday from Brenda, I did not believe it and had to call the doctor to verify it. I will miss him a lot. He became really close over the past 6-7 years. He was my best friend and confidant and I was his. Call when you have time to talk. Diane Clark

Jackie, Thank you so much for the kind words. I know your name, but Brenda and I are trying to put a face with the name. It has been a really upsetting time and I am sure that once things settle down we will go "Oh yeah. I remember her now!" Diane Clark
