“ Aunt Norma,
We are all sad that Uncle Jerry is no longer in an earthly presence with us. However, we rejoice in knowing he is spending this holy season, the resurrection, in the company of our Lord and God together with his mother and father.
We will always remember his soft spoken words of wisdom and never ending smile, the way he raised his brows in acknowledgment of his approval (or was he asking what we kids were doing?)
I've always admired how tall and proud he stood and how with such honor and pride he served our great nation.
We love you and miss you Uncle Jerry.
We will continue to pray for you and ask that you watch over us all.
Aunt Norma, we will pray for you too that you will be given the strength you need to be comforted and enveloped in the love of our holy mother.
When you miss Uncle Jerry or feel lonely, please take comfort in knowing his presence is always with you, with us, and he would not want you sad. Rather look back and see the single set of footprints, because our Lord is there carrying you through this difficult and trying time.
We love you,
Karen, Tom, Alisa & Joey-Kameren, Alanna, Ha'ane; Mishel; Thomas; and Aleksander

“ My deepest sympathy to Jerry's family. I had hoped to see him at the all school reunion this June until one of our other classmates of the Class of 1958 told me that his health was in serious condition. He was always a joy to visit with and we were so proud of him and his accomplishments.
