

Geraldine Louise Nappi

August 17, 1935 - December 14, 2025

Geraldine Louise Nappi passed away peacefully on December 14, 2025, at the age of 90.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Fred and Helen Heine, and her brother, Richard Heine.

Born and raised in Connecticut, Gerri married her high school sweetheart and devotedly supported his military career embracing each new chapter of life together. Lou and Gerri built a loving home in Virginia, where she devoted herself to raising their sons and later worked in the career center at George Mason University.

Gerri lived her life with quiet grace, deep faith, and a generous heart. A devoted member of Grace Episcopal Church, her faith grew there and remained a steady source of strength throughout her life. She found joy on the golf course as a longtime member of Evergreen Country Club, and treasured the companionship of her book club friends. Above all, her greatest pride and joy was her family.

Gerri is survived by her devoted husband of 68 years, Lt. Col. Louis Thomas Nappi, USMC (Ret.). She also leaves behind her two sons, Lou Nappi Jr. (Cathy) and Roger Nappi (Laurie); her three cherished grandchildren, Taylor, Alexa, and Devin; and her sister, Fredricka Pilkington, along with many dear friends who will miss her deeply.

A Graveside service will be held at Quantico National Cemetery on Thursday, January 15, 2026 at 1:00p. The procession begins at 12:30p.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Disabled American Veterans Charitable Service Trust may be made in Gerri's memory.
