“ I was very saddened to hear of Jerris passing. She was my son Tylers sunday school teacher at Haymarket Baptist Church. Tyler was with her for two years and developed a deep bond with her. Many days he would arrive at Sunday School and find her not there and refuse to stay without her. I can't explain to you how much Tyler loved Jerri. Many sundays it was just she and Tyler there but they always managed to have fun together. She always brought little presents for him and made him love going to Church. She was a very loving, sweet lady. We will miss her very much. Heaven gained a perfect angel when she flew home. May your family find peace in knowing how deeply she impacted the lives of those young and old. God Bless you during this difficult time.
