

Glenn Stewart Waldron

February 9, 1926 - September 14, 2023

Glenn Stewart Waldron passed away on September 14, 2023. He is survived by his beloved wife of 75 years, Audrey Chalkley Waldron; his son, Glenn Stewart Waldron, Junior; his granddaughters, Stacy Landis Hackney (Roby) and Sarah Landis Dawkins (Jeffrey); and seven great-grandchildren, Grayden Hackney, Colter Hackney, Lucas Dawkins, Benjamin Hackney, West Hackney, Scarlett Dawkins, and Miles Dawkins. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Gail Marie Landis; his parents, Chester Lloyd Waldron and Sarah Olive Stewart Waldron; and his brother, Chester Alexander Waldron.

Glenn was born on February 9, 1926, and was raised in Arlington, Virginia. He attended Washington and Lee High School where he was an avid track runner. Glenn did a post-graduate year at Fork Union Military Academy before entering the military. He attended Benjamin Franklin University and graduated with a degree in accounting. He was a World War II veteran in the U.S. Army and served as an employee for the federal government for over thirty years. Glenn was known for his kindness and fun-loving disposition. He was a devout Christian, an avid golfer, a lover of pranks and old Westerns, and the life of every party. Glenn valued love and compassion above all else, and he embodied those virtues every day during his long and happy life.
