“ Aunt Gloria left us unexpectedly. She loved her family more than life itself. She was kind and gentle and I never heard her speak a harsh word. The home she and Jim built was the opposite of the one I grew up in. I treasured every minute that they welcomed me into their family. I was fortunate to have her in my life. I will treasure the memories.

Gloria was one of the kindest, sweetest lady I ever met. I always looked forward to seeing her at the Hair Salon on Sat. Mornings . We would have a good visit while she and my Mom got their hair done. My condolence to Billy, Wayne and Carol. I know Gloria will be missed.
