“Gloria was an incredible Christian woman and a dedicated friend. The world is bit darker without her beautiful smile. Gloria's kind and generous spirit touched us all throughout the years and she will always be remembered with love.

May the Lord bring you peace and comfort, Rocky. You are in our hearts and in our prayers. We love you so very much.

“Rocky was so lucky to have such a special lady - Gloria - in his live. I only knew her from afar, but immediately discerned her powerful presence - one of love, peace, and caring for others. I share the loss of the Snelling family, but find peace in knowing that Gloria has gone to be with her Lord and God. God bless to all of Gloria's family, and may God give you His peace and stength during this very sad time in our lives. What a special Lady??

“Rocky, Mary and Nancy,

I will truly miss my dear friend Gloria as I am sure so many others will also. Her kind words, her smiling face and deep faith in God is what made her "just peachy".

Love, Hannah

“ My deepest sympathy. Gloria was a truly wonderful Christian woman, a trusted and knowledgeable co-worker and good friend. Though terribly sad with her passing, I pray that God will bless all of you with the peace in knowing that she has received the "ultimate healing" (her words to me just a couple weeks ago) and is at home with her Lord.

“ God blessed me by allowing me to cross paths with Gloria in this earthly journey. Gloria is a woman of God. She is only gone in body but not in spirit. She is in heaven in the presence of the person who promised her eternal life, Jesus Christ. God has called her home. Gloria kept the faith, finished her course, and endured to the end. I know once she entered into the presence of the Father she heard "Well done thou good and faithful servant. I am not saying goodbye to Gloria because I will see her again and we will praise God together.

*Your Sister in Christ,
Denise*
