

Gregory Tarran Allen

July 6, 1948 - June 8, 2018

Gregory Allen, resident of Haymarket, Virginia, passed away on June 8, 2018, at the age of 69 years. Greg will be fondly remembered by his family and friends for his kindness, integrity, intelligence, and wit.

A native of Ogden, Utah, Greg graduated from Ogden High and Brigham Young University, and he was both a proud Tiger and Cougar. He served an LDS mission with the Navajo Nation in the Southwest US. After earning a Juris Doctorate from Southwest Texas College of Law in Houston, he spent his career as a litigator, first with the Navy as a Judge Advocate General (stationed in California and Florida) and then with the Department of Defense as a contracts attorney (working in Utah, Georgia, and Virginia).

Greg was a deep thinker, avid reader, and lifelong learner. He was a student of history, and he especially admired Abraham Lincoln. Greg also loved sports throughout his life as an athlete and fan, especially basketball and any BYU team.

He is survived by his wife of 15 years, Jean, siblings Jane (David), Nancy (Fred), and Robert (Lynn), sons Christopher (Robin), Matthew (Claire), Nathan (Heidi), and Mark (Katie), stepdaughter Lindsay, and grandchildren Theodore, Lucius, Landon, Margot, Asher, and Scarlett. He was predeceased by his first wife, Linda, and by his parents, Norman and Margaret.

A Visitation in memory of Greg will be held Monday, June 11 at 11:30 a.m. at the Gainesville LDS chapel (14015 Glenkirk Drive, Gainesville, VA), and Internment will follow at Stonewall Memorial Gardens.
