“ As a co-worker my favorite memory of Greg is the story he loved to tell that even as a child he was planning cities. He always knew that's what he wanted to do. His eyes would light up as he told it, and I never tired of it. He was quite unique and will be missed by all!

“ Greg had an amazing memory, I recall how he could remember dates and events with ease. When it came to planning and zoning matters he was a wizard. It was a pleasure to watch him at town meetings recalling town code sections by memory. Rest in peace my friend.
