

Gregory A. Kremer

April 27, 1964 - November 10, 2016

Gregory A. Kremer, age 52, of Bristow, VA died early Thursday morning, November 10, 2016, at Inova Hospital, Fairfax, VA following a short illness.

Greg was born April 27, 1964 in Maryville, MO to Janice Leavell and Terry A. Kremer, who predeceased his son in 1996. He came to the Manassas area with his family at a young age and spent most of his life here.

Greg graduated Stonewall Jackson High School, Manassas, in 1982. He received his BS in accounting from Radford University and shortly thereafter earned his CPA certification. He worked in the accounting field until last spring when he took a job as a software implementation consultant for Unanet. He was thoroughly enjoying this new challenge.

He was married November 2, 1996 to Pamela Groseclose at St. Clair of Assisi Catholic Church in Clifton, VA. They recently celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary. In addition to his wife and mother, he is survived by his son Joshua Dimitri, of the home, and his sister Kristin Kremer, also of Bristow.

Greg had a plethora (one of his favorite words) of friends and acquaintances. He remained in contact with many of his high school friends. He played his favorite sport soccer for years until ultimately the 40 somethings realized they could no longer play as the 20 somethings. He had his golfing buddies including his sister and loved every minute on the golf course, even when things were not going his way. He relished the opportunity to hang out with friends. Greg had a love of history, a sharp mind, and always kept up with current events. He loved political discussions especially when he could play the agitator.

His best "buddy" was his son Josh. They loved their "guy adventures" whether it was riding in the deuce coupe, playing golf, or just hanging out. Even though baseball was not Greg's favorite sport, he supported Josh in his efforts. He took him to practice, coached him, and watched his games.

Services will be Friday afternoon at Pierce Funeral Home. Visitation will begin at 2 p.m. followed by a memorial service at 3:30 p.m. A celebration of Greg's life will be held at 9250 Falling Water Dr., Bristow, VA immediately after the service. In lieu of flowers, the family asks donations be made to the American Cancer Society or the American Diabetes Association.

“ Pam, Josh, Janice, and Kristin,
I was at a lose of words and so sad when I heard that Greg had passed so soon. He was far too young, however we are all God's children and when the Lord wants us to join him, it is time, plus Greg doesn't have to suffer. Please find comfort in the fun and happy memories that you shared with your loved one. Greg reminded me a lot of his father, Uncle Terry. Greg was a good man, husband and father, son and brother. He will be greatly missed! You all are in my prayers and thoughts and I send my deepest condolences. May you find comfort in God's grace and mercy! God Bless you all! My Love and Prayers are with you All!.....Julie Leinen, Harlan, IA, Greg's Cousin

“ I was so sad to hear of Greg's unexpected passing ~ my heart goes out to Pam, Josh and Janice! Greg was a good friend and a good man ~ though I didn't know him the past many years, as we had gone different directions following our years shared post-college (in the days of our youth, lol), I always remember how he enjoyed to laugh and to make others laugh. He had an expansive, caring heart and an encouraging word, albeit tinged at times with humorous sarcasm, for all of his friends in the soccer community (where I had met him). My family appreciated him as well. I had often thought about him and prayed he and his family were doing well, so when Robert and Jimmy both got in contact with me I was deeply saddened.

I wish I could make the funeral on Friday, but I will be serving on a christian women's retreat from Thursday through Sunday and will not be available to attend. I will certainly be praying for all involved and will continue to pray for your family as you adjust to a different plan than you had hoped for or expected. May the LORD hold you each close and comfort you personally as only He can... God bless you and keep you in this time of deep sadness and grief. I will always remember Greg to be an upstanding and caring man. Pax

For Pam...I pray that the devastation and utter helplessness that you must be feeling right now be comforted by the strength of God's great grace and mercy...that the minutes won't drag on forever, often feeling like days of grief and loneliness, and that the sense of futility may feel some shift as you bask in the beauty of memories and recall the times of delight and joy shared with your husband and partner. I pray that the ache diminishes, though I imagine it won't go away, and the sorrow does not overtake you and you find glimpses of happiness each day as you walk through this unexpected time of deep loss. <3

“ Pam and Josh,

I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Greg's a great guy and from my viewpoint a wonderful family man. I'm so glad I had the opportunity to get to know Greg through golf. He was a dedicated student and always allot of fun to work with, even on those rare occasions when the ball wasn't behaving. And Josh, your dad will always be watching over you with pride.

“Please accept my deepest sympathy on the loss of your beloved Gregory. How sad it is to lose your loved ones when they still have such a zest for life. I'm so sorry for your loss. Jehovah God (psalms83:18) did not intend for our lives to be cut short. In the beautiful words of Revelation21:3,4 God promises soon he will eliminate all pain, sickness and death. What a wonderful promise! While we wait for the fulfillment of God's promise, may your family find comfort in your beautiful memories and Jesus promise, John5:28,29.

“ Pam and Josh,
I'm devastated to learn of Greg's passing. My heart is broken. It was such a wonderful experience getting to know Greg over the years at NDi. I turned to him often for advice and to learn something I didn't know. He was so bright. He cared so much for you and Josh and spoke so fondly about both of you often. Greg loved life, his family, his friends and his sports. I know you will miss him terribly. Please know that you, Josh, his mom and sister are in my prayers. I'll miss him.
