

Gregory W. Rhatican

December 11, 1965 - October 12, 2024

Gregory W. Rhatican passed away on October 12, 2024. He was preceded in death by his parents William and Leslie Rhatican. He is survived by his two children Alexis and Elizabeth Rhatican; his nephew Ray Rhatican; his niece Taylor Rhatican; and his brother Jeffery Rhatican. Greg was born on December 11, 1965, in Orange, New Jersey. Greg grew up in the Fort Hunt area of Alexandria, Virginia. Growing up he enjoyed playing a multitude of sports including baseball, tennis, football, rugby, and swimming. He attended Fort Hunt High School where he lettered in Varsity Football. During his Senior Year of High School, he was recruited to play Collegiate football at Shepard College in West Virginia. Greg also earned Honorable Mention in the All-Gunston District Voting for his athletic ability on the football field.

Greg played collegiate football at Shepard College for one year before transferring to Radford University in Radford, Virginia. While at Radford, Greg joined Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and served as the Social Chair. Greg reminisced fondly on his time at Radford as a TKE. While at Radford, Greg played recreational rugby. He graduated from Radford with a double major in Business and Marketing in 1991. After graduation, Greg worked in sales where he specialized in building supply sales. In 2004 he won the PROSALES Marquee Players of the Year award. Throughout his career he worked for Builders First Source, Tart Lumber, T.W. Perry, and Smitty's.

In his free time Greg loved to cook and watch football. On weekends when his daughters were younger you could always find him at a soccer field. Once his daughters started playing soccer, Greg enjoyed watching womens professional soccer including the U.S. Womens National Team. He was an avid golfer, fisherman, and hunter. He loved the Washington Commanders and LSU football especially. Greg almost never missed a Jimmy Buffet concert and even had a shark fin suit made for concert appearances.

To relax, Greg loved to escape to Reedville, Virginia with some of his closest friends for a long weekend of fishing, boating, and poker. On weekend nights Greg could be found at the dining room table after dinner having a glass of wine and debating politics and history with his father, William. Greg will be missed dearly by all in his life. Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Monday October 21, 2024 at 11:00 AM at Sacred Heart Church in Manassas.

“ We were alerted to Gregory's passing by his nephew, Raymond, who was deeply saddened by his death. Ray advised us that they were very close and also that Greg was a great lover of the outdoors. Indeed, the pictures and obituary allude to that love.

Our condolences extend to the entire Rhatican family and friends; and in his memory, a donation of $50.00 has been made to the Coastal Conservation Association of Maryland.

May he rest in peace as he and the family are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Sincere condolences and sympathy during this difficult time of unexpected loss, shock and grief. Greg was a great neighbor, always friendly and ready to help anyone in need. He had great stories from his past and shared his love for sports, fishing, food, adventures, work, friends and family with such joy! Greg’s love and pride for Liz and Alexis is undeniable! He spoke so proudly of your accomplishments (and there are many) but most of all it seemed to be because you are his girls and he was so so proud to be your Dad! I hope you feel the comfort and love during this difficult time of loss and grief. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Sending you love and hugs...
Love, Mari

My condolences to the Rhatican family. Greg was a bit of a chef, contributing to dinners among friends at the River House in Reedville. This was usually followed up by some card games and not-so-early breakfasts the next morning. He was also a real contributor to the Big Mac camp work weekends.

As others have mentioned, Greg was proud of his daughters, Liz and Alexis. He was focused on their ongoing academic and athletic accomplishments. He was clearly a loving father.

He is truly missed, may he rest in peace.

Belated but sincere condolences - just learned of this sad news from the RU alumni magazine. I immediately remembered Greg as one of the kindest, friendliest guys on campus - always hanging out at the fountain-truly the center of all of the action at Radford - soaking up the sun and talking to everyone - even me, a shy freshman sorority pledge who was incredibly homesick. He was the first TKE I approached to sign my pledge book - I still have his encouraging words and autograph around here somewhere in my pledge book! Love that Greg was a girl dad! May his memory be a blessing.

“ Greg was the best cousin! I remember holiday family gatherings, of course football was on for Thanksgiving and Greg made the best ham! He loved his family so much. I definitely agree with everyone how much he loved his girls and was so proud of them! Though we had grown apart after our parents passed away he was also there for me as we shared in our grief. Liz and Alexis I know there is no comfort that can truly be given, losing a parent is so difficult but just know so many people are thinking of you and are there for you.

“ Greg will be sorely missed by so many as he touched so many hearts of people through the years, but probably no one else as much as me, as we were close friends for over 30 years. We hunted, fish, and served on the board of directors of a youth camp called Camp, big Mac for over 30 years. My heart goes out to his two girls, Alexis and Elizabeth, who he devoted his life to. Best wishes Greg through your next life's adventure.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Greg's passing. We have been business associates for almost thirty years and have become friends along the way. Although we rarely saw each other, we called regularly to catch up. The conversation would start out about business but quickly turn to fishing reports, cooking recipes, and, ultimately, his girls. He absolutely cherished Alexis and Elizabeth! You could hear the love and adoration in his voice any time he started talking about their latest accomplishments. I am going to miss these calls; rest in peace, my friend.
