

Guida J. Lawrence

July 8, 1934 - November 27, 2018

Guida Jacqueline Lawrence, 84, entered fully into the presence of her Lord and Savior, Tuesday, November 27, 2018. We rejoice that God chose to take her home during her favorite season that celebrates the birth of Jesus Christ.

“Jackie”, as she was best known, was born on July 8, 1934 in Galax, Virginia to Donald H. Dean, Sr. and Josephine “Josie” Lawson Dean, both of whom have gone to be with the Lord. She was the oldest of nine children, five of whom have predeceased her, John Robert “Bob” Dean, Donald H. “Don” Dean, Jr., Kelly Franklin Dean, Cecil Wayne Dean and Linda Lou Dean. She is survived by her brother, Ronny “Ron” H. Dean and his wife Sandy, Becky Perry and her husband C.G. and Patricia Diane Lee and her husband Patrick.

Jackie was a devoted, loving mother to four children and one step-daughter. She is preceded in death by her daughter, Roberta Aileen Lawrence and is survived by her children, Nikki Linn Marshall and her husband Troy, Rebecca Charlotte Harding and her husband Gary, Robert Weldon Lawrence, Jr., and his wife Justyna, and her step-daughter, Diane Fleming, and her husband Paul. Jackie is also survived by nine grandchildren, Troy Douglas Marshall, II, Matthew Sterling Marshall and his wife, Kimberly, Allison Nicole Zanelotti and her husband Patrick, Justin Tyler Harding and his wife Alana, Amanda Jane Harding, Rachel Jacqueline Harding, Gerald Edward Lawrence and his wife Kathryn, Robert Weldon Lawrence, III and his wife Lyndsey, Noah Riley

Lawrence, and two step-grandchildren, Tammy Beranza and husband Marcos and Dawn Miller and husband Tim. Jackie is also survived by two great-grandchildren, Kyla Grace Lawrence and Elsie Maribel Harding. She is also survived by many loving nieces and nephews, extended family and devoted friends.

Jackie served as President of the Parent Teacher Association and a substitute teacher in Baltimore, Maryland when her children were in elementary school. Although she worked several jobs during her early working years, her 20-year career as a dedicated court and jury clerk began when she relocated from Laredo, Texas to Virginia in 1980. During her service with Prince William County Circuit Court she was awarded the prestigious Liberty Bell Award for outstanding service to the law and her community as it relates to each citizen's civic responsibilities. She was a member of Manassas Assembly of God for almost forty years, now known as Chapel Springs Assembly of God. She continued to worship with her church family at Manassas Health and Rehab Center until a week prior to her death. Jackie's devotion to her faith was evident throughout her entire life, shown by her unconditional love to family, friends and even strangers. She will always be remembered for her warm inviting smile, her bear hugs and her undeniable style. What she would want to be remembered for most is her love and commitment to her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, who she shared with everyone she met.

The family will receive friends from 6:00-8:00 pm, Saturday, December 1, 2018 at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia 20110. Services will be held at Chapel Springs Assembly of God, 11500 New Life Way, Bristow, Virginia 20136 at 2:00 pm on Sunday, December 2, 2018. Interment will be held at Bethany United Methodist Church, Austinville, Virginia at 1:00 pm, Monday, December 3, 2018.

“ Nikki, your mom was such a lovely person and my family and I are so sad for your loss. Every time I saw her she'd say, "come on over here and give me a big hug!" I'll never forget that. It meant so much to me and her smile lit up the room. Big hugs to you and your family.

“ Nikki I was not fortunate enough to meet your mom before today. Today, as I met her through all of the wonderful photos and memories, I gained a picture of a woman who loved her family and was loved greatly by them. She had style, a zest for life and a smile to match. She seemed to love life and enjoy a good laugh. My thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family at this time for your great loss. Be comforted by her faith and the knowledge that you will meet her again, forever the next time. Love to all.

Sorry for your loss. It is very comforting knowing that she was going home to be with the Lord. God is our light and direction in life. She has completed her work here on earth and is now with her True Father and other family members. Remember we all will meet again. Prayers for you and your family. God Bless.

Our hearts and prayers go out to everyone grieving the loss of Jackie. She is with God, but what she left behind is her loving personality, generous heart and kind soul which carries on through her family. This is a very difficult time, but God and the strength, love and dedication to one another will carry you through.

*Love,
Tim and Dawn Miller*

Nikki,

I'm so sorry to read of your mom's passing. She was such a joy when I was at MHRC and she's the one that brought you and I together! She was always dressed up and ready, with her hair and makeup done perfectly! She'd always have a smile on her face and a friendly word when she'd see anyone!

May wonderful memories fill your heart during this difficult time.
