“ I am so sorry for your loss. I can't be there as bad as I would love to. I have my little ones & don't want to disrupt a day for your family. You know Christ. Your son is looking down today & he is happy. He will come to visit, just look for the simple signs. I know there is a heaven. My brother, as your son will do, comes to visit. I find much peace in that. My 2 YR. old talks to Jamie everyday. I have photo's of him in his new after life. Strange but true. Angel is able to pick him out in photo's. He past in 2005 & Angel was born in 2006. She never met him in a earthly way but can point to him in photo's & says his name. He never misses a special occasion. I have proof of this & would love to share w/you to bring you peace. The body is a shell, the soul lives on & love remains. My thoughts are with you today. He will show you because he loves you. Keep an open mind, a open heart to allow him to come to you. It brings great peace & it will you too. Say, see you soon when you kiss his face. I love you & keep the faith. That's what he would want. I will visit after the crowd has gone. God Bless You. A candle is lit for you in my home today. Blessings, Lori Rhoades
