“ Uncle Basil was one of the most loving and generous people I have ever known. Constantly positive, kind and always thinking of others. I remember when I was eight years old, Uncle Basil asked me if there was anything I wanted and I told him I really wanted a hula hoop. He left our house immediately and returned shortly with a hula hoop. I will never forget that! He will be greatly missed. So happy to have known him. Rest in peace, Uncle Basil. My love to you, Aunt Lizzie.

“ I never had the pleasure of working for Ham but I did have occasion to work with him – a true man of integrity. He was a source of strength and comfort to many of us.
