“ Harold was a big person in our church. He worked hard. He did things that he people never saw him doing. He was always around when the Pastor needed you and we are going to miss you. I miss seeing you sitting on the pew this Sunday and thought after I found out that you had passed And gone home to be with the Lord, it's great to see those walls in the streets of gold. We will miss you, but we know you're in a better place happy and healthy.
