“ our most sincere sympathy to the family at the loss of a very great man. Harry was the Best man at our wedding and over the years we have been in and out of touch. Our admiration, respect and love has never waivered and we will miss his sense of decency and fair play and his warped sense of humor. We lost a wonderful man and a good friend.

wishing you peace. Jay and Jeanette VanGelder

“ Marc & Marci There is no bond as great as the one between a father & his children. He was always very proud of you both. I seen with my own eyes how much he appreciate everything you both did for him near the end. He new it would be hard for you, but he new he could count on you both to carry out his wishes. How Bliss he was he ask and you both made it happen. Grief is so very hard, but the pain does get better. When you get down just think of how proud & happy you made him, all of your special memories that will be in your heart as well as his forever, how happy he was to do anything he could for you, but now he will always be happy. Because he will always be with you & watch over you. That what guardian angel do. We will miss him & love him always. Mom
