“ I've been blessed to have known Harry for about 3 years. Every time I entered their home he would greet me with an upbeat "Hello" that made me smile. He also shared some of his jokes with me. This one will make me think of Harry fondly for years to come.

There was this man that was out front of his home weed whacking when all of a sudden the weed whacker cut off the neighbors cats tail. The neighbor saw what just happened and ran over picked up the tail and cat and said " Quick, let's get to Walmart". The man with the weed whacker said "Why Walmart" in which the neighbor replied " Why, because they are the biggest retailer in the country"

Glad to know Heaven will enjoy your jokes Harry. Rest in peace.

We all loved you Uncle Harry! That smile of yours is embedded with us for always! I cherish those memories of the summer I stayed with you all, and especially when I was so upset about my washcloth that was my snoopy dolls blanket and it ripped up and you let me pick any washcloth I wanted out of closet and of course Rosalee said no how about this one.. But we won, the battle! Lol you have always been a great man, example to your kids and grand kids and all the rest of world that knew you! May you enjoy your journey there in the promise land! We will remember you always! Your forever a treasure to us! Til we meet again!
