

Hasmukh Umiashanker Bhatt

March 6, 1955 - October 11, 2024

“It is with profound sadness that we share the passing of our beloved father/husband, HasMukh Bhatt, who left us on October 11, 2024, at the age of 69. He was a man of immense humor and wisdom, treasuring every moment spent with his loved ones. He was loved and admired by all who knew him. HasMukh fought his battle against leukemia for 13 long years. Despite spending much of that time in and out of the hospital, he never lost his playfulness, his ability to find light in any situation, and his love for life, family, and his baby Meeko. He found joy in the small things, like enjoying breadsticks from Olive Garden and he always found time to enjoy a good game of ping pong with friends and family.

HasMukh was a scholar who was always seeking new knowledge, continuously expanding his understanding of the world. He had a deep love for computer programming, a skill that reflected his curious mind, and he always found time to enjoy a good game of ping pong with friends and family. Extremely intelligent and humble, HasMukh left an indelible mark on everyone he encountered.

While exploring his own interests he never missed a moment to support his partner and wife, Chitra. Though not an artist himself he happily encouraged her talents in painting and singing. Putting himself out of his comfort zone, the time he set aside to travel with Chitra is something for which she will be forever grateful. He leaves behind his legacy with his children, Shivangi and Anish.

Hasmukh will be remembered not only for the wisdom he imparted but for the way he made others feel—loved, respected, and heard. His infectious laughter, gentle soul, and endless curiosity for life’s wonders will be missed deeply by those fortunate enough to have known him. His spirit lives on in the memories he created with family and friends, and his lessons will continue to guide and inspire us all.”
