

Hazel Mae Anderson

March 21, 1930 - November 23, 2023

Hazel M. Anderson, 93, widow of WW II Navy veteran, Donald M. Anderson, passed away Thanksgiving morning at Fair Oaks Hospital.

Born March 21, 1930, on an Arkansas farm, she cherished her student years at a two-room school, caring for farm animals and hard labor helping her parents growing vegetables for a canning factory.

World War II called her family to the Seattle, WA, area where her father, Everett, was a mechanic for Boeing and her mother, Mary, helped build B-29s. In her early teen years Hazel worked in a Seattle bakery.

A talented designer with an eye for color, she worked many years as an interior decorator and window dresser for Sears and later as a clerk at Boeing, at times assigned to handling classified mail.

She used her artistic talents making ceramics in her own kiln, crafting dolls, sewing clothes for her children, sketching and painting.

She married Donald Anderson Sept. 4, 1948, in Renton, WA, where the couple later lived until Mr. Anderson's death in August 2019.

During Mr. Anderson's more than 20 year active duty Navy service, the devoted Navy wife followed her husband to duty stations from California to Washington, DC, Rhode Island, and Seattle.

Hazel is survived by a son, Phillip, with whom she lived in Centreville after her husband's death; two daughters, Susan Moss, Ohio, and Valerie Vance, Tenn.; several grandchildren, and great- and great-great grandchildren.

She became a resident of Sunrise at Fair Oaks in July and made many friends there.

Arrangements with Pierce Funeral Home, Manassas, and in Washington State with Marlott Funeral Home, Kent.

Burial will be with her husband at Tahoma National Cemetery, Kent.

“ Mom you will be missed. I love you lots. You taught me so much growing up that I still use that knowledge every day. You and dad can share your time together again.

“ My fondest memory of Mom was when we all had a water fight at our California home We all had so much fun & laughs. Other times I remember most were our TV nights with popcorn & Pepsi & her making homemade ice cream. My brother and I would collect the snow and Mom made the ice cream. Mom was the kindest & most giving person I have ever known. I know she is with the Lord.
