

Helen Ruth Haynie

June 12, 1922 - January 27, 2015

Helen Ruth Haynie passed away at home in Manassas, Virginia, on January 27, 2015, where she spent most of her retirement years.

Helen was born on June 12, 1922, in Baltimore, Maryland. She grew up in Wilmington, Delaware and in Del Ray, Alexandria, Virginia. After graduating from George Washington High School in Alexandria, Helen worked for many years for the Department of Agriculture in Washington, DC.

Helen was a cheerful and loving friend to her many friends and a loving aunt to her many nieces and nephews. Helen was always helping her family and many friends with her deep love, compassion and her devotion. Helen loved nature, especially birds, which she fed and watched faithfully her whole life.

Helen deeply loved the Lord and her family and she was devoted deeply to them. She was preceded in death by her mother, Helen Lucina Haynie, her father, Lloyd Graham Haynie, her two sisters Mary Alice Jobling and Muriel Lee Williams, and her brother, Lloyd Graham Haynie, Jr.

Helen leaves her dear, lifelong friend and companion, Lucille "Bittsie" Raiford of Manassas and Ms. Raiford's nieces Debra Longhelt and Diane Lewis, who all selflessly loved and cared for Helen.

Helen's family and friends will always remember her as a kind, loving, and generous woman. We will miss her deeply and will remember her always.

Graveside services will be 2:00PM Wednesday, February 4, 2015 at Stonewall Memory Gardens, 12004 Lee Highway, Manassas, Virginia.

“ There are many things in life we get to do and I had the privilege of helping to care for my Aunt Helen and it was my joy and I will miss her dearly! Something she always said to me in recent months as I was leaving was, Hasta la vista", so to you I say, Hasta la vista, Helen and I love you!
