“ Annie and Peaches' family I am so sorry to hear about her death. I hadn't seen any of you much since we were kids but I am glad I got to reconnect with her at the last reunion I was at.
You are all in my thoughts and prayers.
Love, Darlene and family

“ My daughter, Claire, and I will miss Helen more than you'll ever know. Each morning she picked Claire up for school, she brightened our day. Helen's warm smile and kind, loving heart showed what a lovely person she was. We're thankful for the fact that we got to know her, if only for a short time. God bless you all and we're so sorry for your loss.

“ Annie Catherine Pearson, I was saddened to read about the recent death of your daughter, Ms. Helen Pearson. I offer my sincere condolences. When we lose a loved one in death, we often wonder is death the end of it all.

It is comforting to know that God, our Creator, has made the way possible for us not only to return to life if we fall asleep in death but also to live forever in perfection and peace. This wonderful prospect is made possible through his son, Jesus Christ. (If you have a personal copy of the Bible, please read John 3:16.) Can you imagine Helen?s joy at seeing you again? Please take comfort in the resurrection hope found in the Bible at John 5:28 & 29. Yes, one day soon we will see the marvelous fulfillment of Revelation 21:3, 4. A wonderful promise indeed! I hope these thoughts have brought you some comfort. Please share them with your family. Again, my sincere condolences.
