“ *Hank,
For all my childhood you were my Uncle. Always a happy smile on your face and that great German accent of yours. I can still remember you eating your grapefruit and taht yukky black german bread in the mornings! (I teased you about it!). You will always be a beautiful memory. The Christmases and Summers when you drove Cindy and Alan down. When i was 18 you even took me and my friends to a nightclub because Mom and Dad wouldn't take us! Rest in peace my Uncle Hank.*

“ Heart felt condolences. Ed and I knew Hank, many years ago when we both owned horses. He was a really nice person...even though he didn't ride horses. Life is a mystery, and we all live in a large universe.

May he, Rest in Peace.
