“ Dear Des and family,

Please accept my heart felt condolences. I know words seem to ring hollow and do not offer much comfort at this time. I have wonderful memories of Herb and you from when I was young. Childhood memories are the type that are strong and vivid and that are held onto with great fondness. I know my father cared for Herb deeply and had a special place in his heart for him.

I will keep you and your family in my prayers,

“Herbie” was the big brother I never had. I have wonderful childhood memories of him. The one grandpa I felt was mine, was his father, married to my grandmother. You were a bright spot in my dark childhood. May you rest in peace “brother”.
