“ What a pleasure it was to know Obie! Her faith in our Lord was strong, yet she always wanted to learn more about Him and about Scripture. She spoke her mind and what she said was usually full of wisdom. I will miss her!

“ Those mandatory hugs she demanded of me on Mondays when giving her time to sort the Promiseland nametags will be sorely missed. She told me that she so enjoyed being able to joke with me but we could talk seriously to one another as well. I loved her for who she was and for her spirit. My only regret is that I didn't know her longer and know her better.
