

Hope Shaw

August 7, 1951 - September 10, 2012

Hope Shaw, 61, of Manassas, VA, passed from this life into her eternal home on Monday, September 10, 2012. Hope was born on August 7, 1951 at Dover Hospital in Parsippany, NJ not far from a community called Mount Tabor where she grew up. She was the third child of Hope and Henry Henes. They provided a loving home where they instilled the values of charity and humility in her life. In June of 1971, Hope married William (Bill) Shaw. When they first met, Bill impressed Hope with his kindness and his love for family; both of which were present in her own life. Together they raised three daughters. Hope was a supportive wife and an amazing mother. She showed her children the love of Jesus through her own actions. She also showed them the joy of singing His praises.

Hope was a gifted artist and attended art school. She later earned an Associates degree as a physical therapist assistant and worked for several years, ministering with her hands in home-health care and in special education with the local public school system. Hope's most recent work was to minister to women in prison. There she lovingly shared Christ. Over the years she also coached hundreds of children in swimming as an assistant and head coach of several swim teams; QDD, Stonewall Park and Osbourn High School to name a few.

Hope is survived by her husband, Bill Shaw, and their three daughters Tara Dixon and husband Kent, Karen Shaw and Deanna Shumate and husband John, their 11 grandchildren Sarah, Seth, Emily, Ben, Michael, Katie, Levi, Rachel, Genevieve, Jane and William, Hope's father, Henry Henes and her brother, John Henes and wife Carol and sister, Heidi Henes-VanBergan and husband Nathan. Her mother Hope Henes predeceases her.

A viewing and memorial service will be held Thursday, September 13th at 6:00pm at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, VA 20110. The burial will take place Friday, September 14th at 9:00am at Stonewall Memorial Gardens, 12004 Lee Highway, Manassas, VA 20109. A memorial mass will be held Friday, September 14th at 10:30am at All Saints Catholic Church 9300 Stonewall Road, Manassas, VA 20110. All are welcome! Thank you for everyone who has supported our family through Hope's journey with cancer. It was her desire that Christ be glorified through it all. A word from Hope: "I trust in Jesus."

"O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together." –Psalm 34:3

“ Hope mentored me over years of trials and her love for me never failed as she tirelessly lifted me for HIS plan. Today I am a clean and sober wife, mother, daughter, grandmother, employee, neighbor and friend. I am grateful to have been graced by her friendship and support. From my family to hers - God Bless

“ I have only one memory of Mrs. Shaw and it is from going to there home to drop Tara off and how she, Mrs. Shaw, was so kind and gave me a hug and said if you are a friend of Tara's you are a friend of us all. She asked me to come in which I had to decline but I wanted to just stay! She made me feel so welcome and loved she had only just met me. I also will always remember Tara's love for her mom, it was so big and unconditional. My love and prayers to you Tara and your entire family and may you find Peace in knowing that she is at Peace. “ To all of Hope's family:)

My life was blessed to have had a glimpse of Hope's life and who she is! She glorified God in her life as well as in her passing from this world into Jesus' arms. God bless you all and my prayers continue on for all of you.

*love & prayers,
Cheryl*

“ I have so many great memories of my beloved sister. I want to share that her niece, IsaTai Mecono, and her nephew, Kyle Van Bergen also rejoice that she is singing with the angels. We miss her greatly but know we will see her again.
