“ In Loving Memory of My Dear Brother Hubert:

*You're the lovely Brother
I've adored since I was small,
And for me the day you left us
Was the saddest time of all.*

*But all the memories that we shared
From when you were a boy,
Have only ever filled my heart
With happiness and joy.*

*You grew up and proved to be
A man both fair and true,
And every day throughout my life
I will think of you.*

*Love You Always,
Brother Carl*

“ I worked with Hubert in recent years and was touched by just how intelligent he was. He was a gentle soul who cared for each of us who knew him, and he was ready provide a kind word if we needed it. I had some fun times working and laughing with him. He did some legendary things like making the world's best network diagram using Microsoft Excel. I worked with him for years before I realized how highly credentialed he was. He did so many interesting things in his life, but he never said much about them unless you asked him, then he'd have a story to tell. I'll miss you Hubert!

“ I first met Hubert after working with his brother Carl Hall. Hubert started working with me after Carl moved on to another job. Hubert was more than a colleague, he was indeed a friend. Sure, we worked together, and met because of work, but again he was more than that - he was a good friend. He was also an excellent engineer. And I miss him already. I will never forget the time we went to Las Vegas. Carl and myself were hanging out and and that time Celine Dion was headlining there and Carl mentioned going to her concert A New Day. I said that I wanted to hold on to the little money I had for the remainder of the trip, the next thing I know was Carl came to tell me that Hubert had bought the tickets and that our seats were seven rows from the stage. This was just the kind of person Hubert was and he will always be remembered in my heart and the hearts of others. We lost a great human being. As I said before I miss him already. Triple J.
