“ To the Query family:
Thank you for treating me like family while I was a Marine stationed at Quantico. I played the guitar/ Banjo and Dobro with Shorty and Gene Whitt in their Gospel Bluegrass band for 2 years. I remember Danny, Shawn and Stephanie. Helen , Shorty and their family were wonderful and I've always appreciated and missed them. May God bless you .

“ To the Query family - so very sorry for your loss. Shorty was a great musician and he played with Gene Whitt at our family reunion for many years. Always had a smile . He cut my Dad, James Barbee Sr's hair one of the last haircuts that my Dad got. RIP Shorty.

“ I always enjoyed a great friendship with Shorty. As a barber, gospel music musician, good father, husband and friend. The photo in this obituary captures the Shorty I knew. May he rest in the arms of the Lord.

“ I have many fond memories with Uncle Shorty and my cousins on camping and hunting trips. He could take 1 squirrel and make a stew for all of us. Always had something funny to say. Love to watch him play the mandolin , he would chew his gum as fast as he played . Although we grew older , moved away, lost touch while building our own families He always will remain the best uncle ever.. RIP Uncle Shorty.

“ I have wonderful memories with Uncle "Shorty". My favorite is of us camping at Caroline Pines, fishing and watching him clean the fish for us to cook on the grill for dinner. My heart goes out to my cousins and family.
